Dear Janice,
I know it hasn't been long.
You really have been busy.
Well I hope that tomorrow you but not that good until this year. But I think you are very nice and good looking. Hope to see you over the summer so come on over and swim sometime.

SSHS FOREIGN TRAVEL

"Hello," ((Bonjour)), ! Hola!

During spring vacation, three different groups of students went to Europe. One group went to England, another to France, and one other to Spain. Here are the highlights of these trips.

Twenty students and three teachers–Mrs. Harris, Miss Sigmon, and Mrs. Workman–traveled to England. There they saw such places as Buckingham Palace and the Tower of London.

On March 25, twelve students, advised by Mrs. Burleson, boarded a plane headed for France. They arrived in Nice, France, where they saw the Riviera. Later they visited Geneva, Switzerland, and then Paris, France. During their stay, the students and chaperones visited such places as a perfume factory and a wine cellar.

At the same time another group of students and Mrs. Daughton traveled to Spain and North Africa. Among the places visited were the Royal Palace in Madrid, and Tangier, Africa.

ENTER THE OLD SOUTH

"Merrily, merrily whirled the wheels of dizzying dances . . . "

The junior class presented Gone With the Wind as the theme of this year's prom with the help of the faculty, and Mrs. James McBride, a local artist. The mistresses of ceremony, who kept the evening moving, were Kim McGinnis and Leesa Patton.

One of the highlights of the evening was the sophomore waiters' and waitresses' dance to the theme of Gone With the Wind and then to music from Saturday Night Fever. Another highlight of this year's prom was the crowning of Elaine Niewulis as queen. She and Todd Herman, the student body president, danced to music provided by the Great American Past Time.

A BEAUTIFUL ROUND-UP

On April 29, 1978, 65 girls, hoping to win the coveted crown of Miss St. Stephens, waited with great anticipation to see who would take the place of the reigning queen. However, only one girl from this Beautiful Round-Up would have her dream realized.

While waiting for the decision of the judges, the Green Friendshipers entertained the audience with some square dancing. Finally, the winners were announced–Miss Congeniality, Teresa Mull; the second runner-up, Kelley Lawing; the first runner-up, Lisa Streib; and the new Miss St. Stephens, Dawn Hilton.

HOMECOMING 1978

Go For It!

During homecoming week the students participated in a number of different activities each day. The activities included a "Stomp'em Day," a "Lick'em Day," a "Bonfire Day," a "Hillbilly Day," and also a "Red and White Day." Besides being "Red and White Day," Friday also marked the first outdoor pep rally held at St. Stephens High School. Friday evening during halftime Rebecca Lytle was crowned homecoming queen. After the game there was a dance held in the cafeteria with "Brazen" playing popular music. This was a memorable week.

"We May Never Pass This Way Again"

Wednesday, June 7, 1978, marked the night of graduation for the seniors of St. Stephens High School. The motto for the event "We May Never Pass This Way Again" held a true meaning for the graduates since that ended their high school days.

After the St. Stephens High School band played the processional and the graduates were seated, Martha Williard gave the Invocation. Jimmy Peeler then introduced the speaker Dr. R. F. Smith, Jr. After the speaker, Mr. Tallman handed out special awards. Then the St. Stephens High School chorus held a short musical intermission.

Steve Sigmon, Valedictorian, and Todd Herman, Salutatorian, both gave speeches that told the graduates what the future would hold for the class.

Then the awaited moment came; Mr. Bost handed out diplomas as the Junior Marshals gave white roses to the female graduates.

After the benediction had been given, the graduates left the gym with mixed emotions.

Dear School Friends,

I'm Gunilla "Nillan" Engdahl, your foreign exchange student for this year. I will thank you all for this great year you have given to me. This year will always be in my memory, and I hope that I will be in your memory too. USA and Sweden are different in many ways, but I still think we can work together and learn from each other. When I go home again I will tell my friends and family about everything I have learned and one thing especially–the great school spirit. I will also thank my lovely family. How they have helped me a lot and made this year so good and happy; especially thanks to Yvonne my great sister for this year.

Love,

Gunilla Engdahl.

WHO'S WHO

It is time for a new generation of leadership, to cope with new problems and new opportunities. For there is a new world to be won.
–John F. Kennedy

The faculty selected ten outstanding seniors for "Who's Who." These students exceed in academics, athletics, and leadership. The quote given above seems fitting in describing the ten 1979 "Who's Who" seniors.

1978 MAGAZINE SALES

Another exciting year of magazine sales started as Mr. Harold Lynch raised the students' selling spirits. Prizes varied greatly this year, from "St. Stephens Spirit bugs" and Crunch candy bars to televisions and stereos.

To make the sales interesting, on Thursday, November 9, the students beat the faculty by thirteen points in a game of basketball, and the challenges were carried out. Mr. Andrew, Mr. Curtis, and Kim McGinnis received some very creamy pies in their faces, and Mrs. Bowman helped in some great cheers.

The students enjoyed the assembly events. Our $20,000 goal was exceeded by about $1,415. Top salesmen were Diane Kale, Beth Keever, and Leesa Patton. The top homeroom in sales was Mrs. Ervin's class. The St. Stephens students can be proud of their great success in magazine sales this year.

Although the boys finished with an 0-19 record, they continually improved all year. At many times during the season there have been four freshmen in the starting lineup playing against sophomores and juniors. If these young men keep improving and working hard they will certainly be very valuable to the St. Stephens basketball program.

The girls' JV Basketball team had a season which went back and forth. The girls had little previous experience, which may have caused them to lose some very close games. Wendy Little and Melanie Moretz helped lead the team through the season.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders did an excellent job of supporting the J.V. teams. The squad consisted of four sophomores and four freshmen. Their hard practice, under the leadership of Cindy Cannon, proved worthwhile throughout the season.

A. SSH J.V. Cheerleaders. B. Cheerleaders increase team spirit. C. B. Ikerd and K. Travis show pep.

TEAM SUPPORT

The Boosters Club, a group of concerned community members, worked in concession stands and sponsored the two athletic banquets. Teachers helped by taking admission fees from spectators. Cheerleaders kept school spirit and enthusiasm at its maximum. The parents and fans supported sports activities with understanding and by attending the events.

IN MEMORIAM

Martha Rae Drum

You are richer today than you were yesterday
if you have laughed
often, given something,
forgiven even more,
made a new friend,
made stepping stones
out of stumbling blocks;
if you have thought more in terms of
"thyself" than "myself," or if you have managed to be cheerful
even if you were weary.

SCHOOL PRIDE

The purpose of the Student Council is to promote student interest and pride in our school and its activities. The duties of this club include sponsoring clean-up days, assemblies, homecoming activities, and issuing parking stickers. The Student Council also sponsors the Interclub Council.

Projects of the Student Council this year included homecoming festivities and the Christmas assembly. This assembly consisted of singing and dancing acts, gymnastics, as well as a play performed by the Drama Club. Highlights of the assembly included Swedish songs sung by Gunilla Engdahl, a piano performance by Jeff Little, and an appearance of the band Onslow Bay.

The Student Council provides the student body with a voice in the government of the school and a chance to participate in its activities.

INTERCLUB COUNCIL

First Row: B. Godfrey, Sgt. of Arms; T. Hollar, Pres.; D. Peeler, Sec.; Ms. Strunk, Advisor. Second Row: R. Lewellen, K. Baker, L. Baker, A. Herman, C. Cannon, J. Gantt, C. Miller, S. Ewing. Third Row: J. Mingus, K. Hawn, D. Baker, T. White, K. Cloer, L. Andrew. Fourth Row: Y. Poole, M. Kramer, T. Drummond, C. Paris, R. Huffman, J. Forbes, D. Cook.

The ICC or Interclub Council functions as a division of the Student Government. The council consists of at least one representative from each club and the vice-president of the Student Council, Terry Hollar, presiding as president. The purpose of the ICC is to bring the school's clubs together to work on problems and common goals. The ICC sponsored a club assembly to help the students get better acquainted with each club.

AFS

The American Field Service, better known as the AFS club, kept up its tradition for the eleventh straight year of sponsoring a foreign exchange student. For this activity to take place, the club must raise at least eight hundred dollars and find a family for the student to live with. Gunilla Engdahl, who is from Saffle, Sweden, was the student to attend our school this year. She stayed with the Earl Poole family.

INTERACT

The Interact Club was added to the list of organizations at St. Stephens this year. The new club is a division of the Rotary Club, and it functions as a service club. Its purpose is to provide opportunities for high school students to work together in fellowship dedicated to service. One activity of the club this year was to serve a dinner at the Flynn Home during the Christmas season.

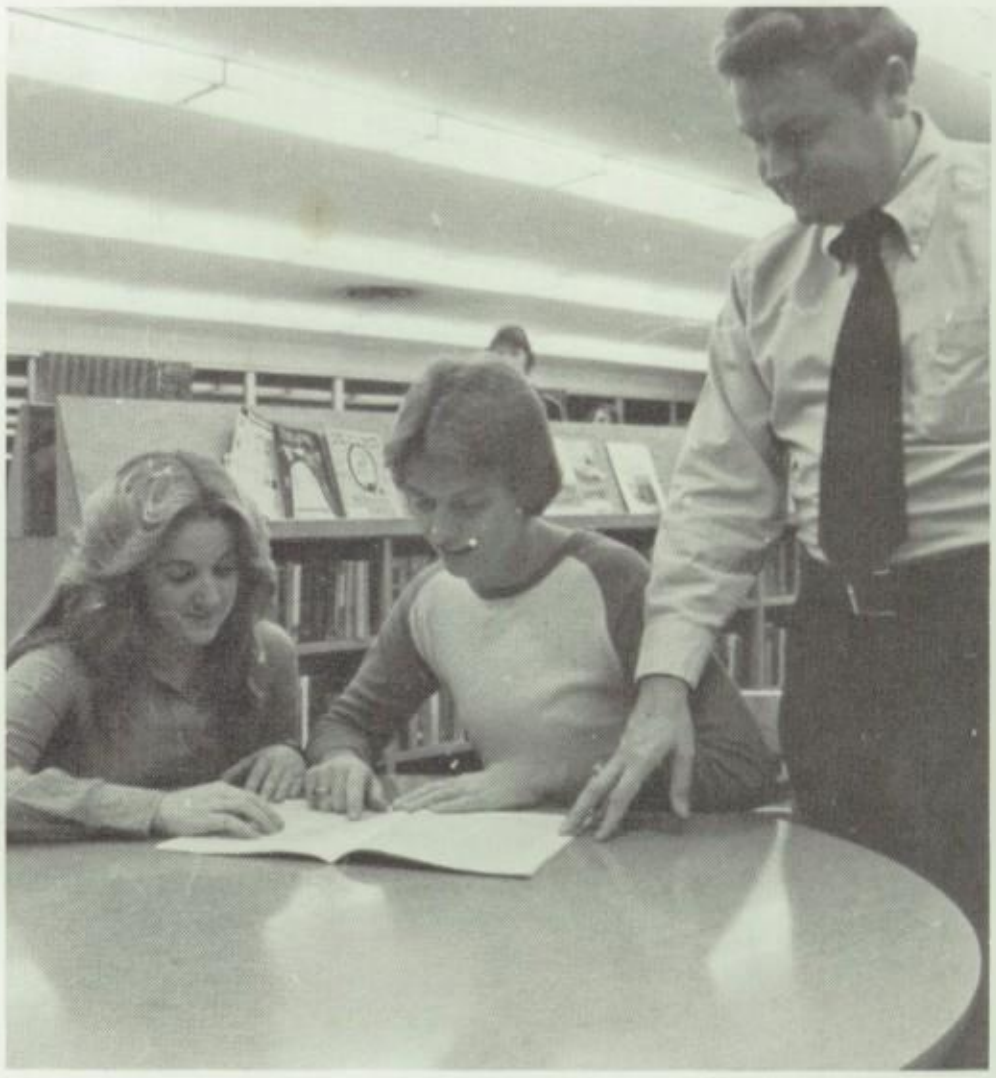
IMPRESSIONS STAFF



The four accelerated English classes and their teacher, Loyd T. Hoke, Jr., sponsor the school's literary paper. Material is selected for this paper by the Impressions staff. The staff consists of two editors from each class; the co-editors come from the senior English class.

The paper is made up of articles and poems submitted by the student body. This allows St. Stephens students to share their literary and artistic abilities.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is a national honorary society that recognizes outstanding journalistic achievements. Members are selected according to their literary achievements and outstanding contribution to school literary and journalistic publications. Among their many activities, they see that a Christmas tree with decorations is displayed in the front lobby.

STAFFS MAKE

The TORCH Editoral staff worked hard this year to produce eight regular issues plus two special issues. This year each issue kept the student body up to date on school events and activities. This spring some members of the staff attended a workshop in Chapel Hill to obtain new ideas for our TORCH. The staff also participated in a newspaper exchange with other area schools. The TORCH staff are members of the N.C. Student Press Association.

First Row: B. Peterson, M. Billow, C. Canella, K. Huggins, B. Billow, J. Stock, M. Sigmon. Second Row: P. Frank, K. Reitzel, Y. Langford, K. Walters, K. Piercy, B. Sain, D. Bolick, D. Sherrill. Third Row: M. Harris, T. Barlow, N. Peeler, A. Vaughn, D. Barger, R. Stallings.

TORCH POSSIBLE

First Row: B. Floyd, E. Sigmon, S. Byrd, K. Miller. Second Row: T. Hudson, T. Johnson, D. Bolick, Ms. Wakefield, Advisor.

The TORCH Business staff helps finance the TORCH by selling ads to area businesses. The staff also sells subscriptions to students and teachers at the beginning of each year. Homeroom representatives assist the staff in the distribution of the TORCH throughout the year.

CORONA EDITORIAL STAFF

The Corona editorial staff is a group of students working together to record a history of events at St. Stephens High School. The organization of the yearbook requires much effort and devotion and often means late-night hours to meet deadlines. The duties of this staff included drawing layouts, writing and proofreading copy and taking pictures. The staff worked throughout the school year, following and recording all the hundreds of activities which occurred. The staff hopes that the students enjoy the yearbook and appreciate the dedication required to bring the CORONA to life.

The Juniorettes are sponsored by the Hickory Junior Woman's Club. The club's primary goal is to help in the betterment of the community. While doing this they also enjoy working and being with each other. The club is a community service organization which receives no profit for their fund-raising projects.

The girls made crafts to donate to the Holiday House; they sponsored a foster child and held a banquet for the new members and their mothers. This year, as always, the Juniorettes produced the "Mr. St. Stephens Pageant" and challenged Hickory High in a game of football.

HEALTH CAREERS

First Row: K. Baker, Pres.; A. Hicks, N. Clampitt, Sec.; J. Stock, Treas.; V. Davis, D. Delp, J. Williams. Second Row: T. Bolick, M. Marlow, L. Hatchett, T. Randall, K. Bradshaw, M. Weaver, S. Drum, R. Jones, T. Bahn, J. Daughton. Fifth Row: P. Morgan, M. White, K. McGinnis, A. Benfield, K. Fagan, K. Crump, L. Poteat.

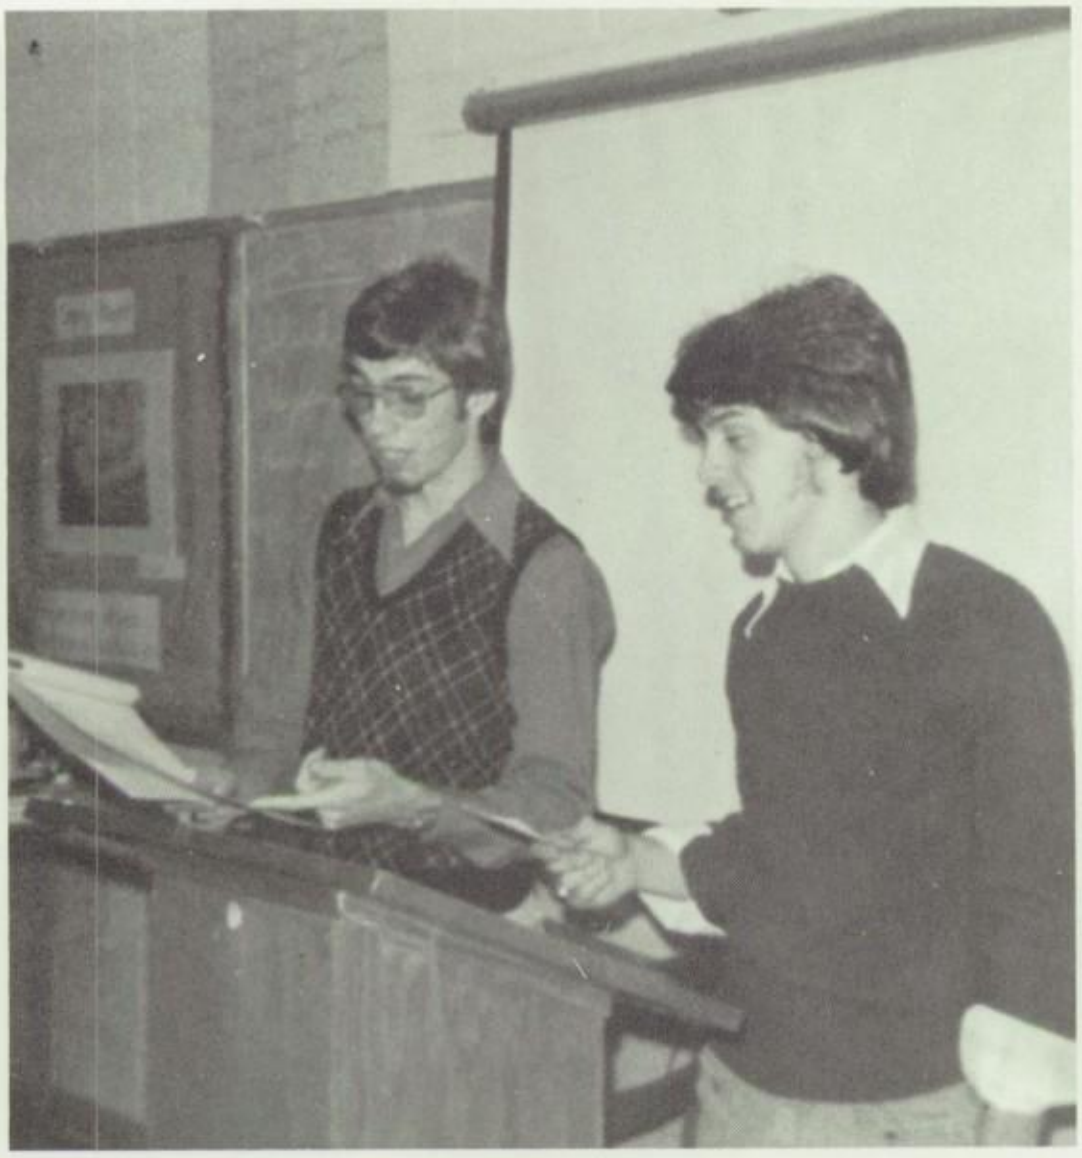
The purpose of the Drama Club is to support and promote any interest in the Dramatic Arts. This certainly held true for this year. Some of the many activities that took place were a trip to Pineville Dinner Theatre to see a production of "My Fair Lady"; the preparation of a Christmas play for the elementary schools; the promotion of the Flatrock Rock Players, who performed a play about Carl Sandburg; and a trip to Lenoir-Rhyne to see "Godspell." The Drama Club won first place for the best room in the March of Dimes Haunted House.

DEBATE



This year's Debate Team participated in a number of out-of-town tournaments and sponsored their own tournament at Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Areas in which our Debate Team participates for awards and honors are debate, extemporaneous speaking, original oratory, and dramatic interpretation.

The debate topic, which changes yearly, was resolved: The Federal Government Should Significantly Increase the Energy Independence of the United States.

During the class period provided for the Debate Team, each member contributes to the overall team effort, thus producing a winning Debate Team.

First Row: C. Johnson, T. Cooper, D. Kale, R. Lewellen. Second Row: L. Fortenberry, R. Drake, D. Leonard, Mr. Andrew; Advisor.

RADIO STAFF

First Row: T. Drummond, Pres.; J. Ritchie, V. Pres.; D. Baker, Sec.; N. Peeler, Treas. Second Row: Ms. Daughton, Advisor; K. Austin, T. Drummond, A. Morgan, T. Paul, Ms. Vaught, Advisor. Johnson, M. Mitchell.

The Radio Staff is an organization which provides interested students with a chance to work in the broadcasting field. This club's main function is to produce the "Voice of St. Stephens," which airs Tuesday nights at nine o'clock on WXRC. The club gained two new advisors this year. They were Mrs. Vaught and Mrs. Daughton. With the help of these advisors, the club members hope that the Radio Club will continue to grow in future years as it has in the past.

ART CLUB

First Row: Mr. Shores, Advisor; C. Cannon, Pres.; K. Piercy, Sec.; B. Sain, Treas.; R. Huffman, R. Herman. Second Row: D. Sherrill, S. Miller, S. Church, G. Engdahl, B. Bowman, S. Bolick. Nagle.

The Art Club is an organization which gives interested students a chance to study the field of art and to develop their artistic abilities. This club is open to any class, and its main purpose is to beautify the school and its environment. A project that fulfilled this purpose this year was the painting of the school's trash cans.

The adviors of the Art Club this year were Mr. Shores and Mr. Deal. They enjoyed working with the club this year and hope more students will become truly involved and active in it next year.

CAMERA

The Camera Club took on a new light as a photography class was formed. Its members worked together to teach and learn new camera techniques. They helped the CORONA staff by developing some pictures for the annual. Their dark room aided them with the necessary materials to produce the pictures.

CERAMICS

During the Ceramic Club's fourth year in existence, many club members were brought into contact with the techniques of ceramics. How to mold, stain, and glaze a piece, as well as how to clean and care for the piece is discussed.

Membership for the club consists not only of class students but others who are interested in the art of ceramics.

The Ceramics Club had many activities, one of which was to arrange display cases in the front lobby.

The Monogram Club is organized to promote a high standard of athletics to create fellowship among our athletes and to be of service to the school and its athletic department. The club is open to persons who have earned a letter in cheerleading or some type of sport. They are responsible for cleaning the activity buses, cleaning the trophy cases, and decorating the display case.

MARCHING INDIANS

Color Guard: C. Lafone, K. Young, D. Adams

The St. Stephens High School Band received a lot of new faces this year, including a new director, Mr. Ray Church. Mr. Church attended UNC Chapel Hill where he received his Bachelor's Degree in music, and later furthered his studies at the University of Miami where he received his Master's Degree.

This year the band consisted of 130 members, the largest membership ever. Along with regular activities such as half-time performances and concerts, the band members also gave up Thanksgiving dinner to march in the Carousel Parade in Charlotte. Another special event was the band's trip to Banner Elk to participate in the homecoming festivities at Lees McRae College. The "Marching Indians" were received warmly there and were presented with a trophy of appreciation.

There is a group of young men and women here at St. Stephens which the students depend on more than they realize – that group is the bus drivers. This year there were twenty-two regular and five substitute drivers. Every school day these men and women were responsible for getting students to and from school amid heavy traffic, snow, or come what may. These drivers were also responsible for cleaning their buses and keeping them in good running order. Although the job of a bus driver requires hard work and a lot of responsibility, these capable young men and women have safely seen the students of St. Stephens through another year.

SPANISH CLUB

First Row: L. Hames, Treas.; K. Richards, Sec.; S. Hoffman, V. Pres.; K. Hawn, Pres. Second Row: Ms. Daughton, Advisor; C. Reid, T. Webb, B. Pope, R. Rumbough, S. Beckert, J. Pless, G. Killian, T. The Spanish Club is for students who are active in Spanish classes. The members participated in a Mexi-Texi Taco meal, Christmas caroling, an afterschool meal for the parents, and a travelogue at Lenoir-Rhyne.

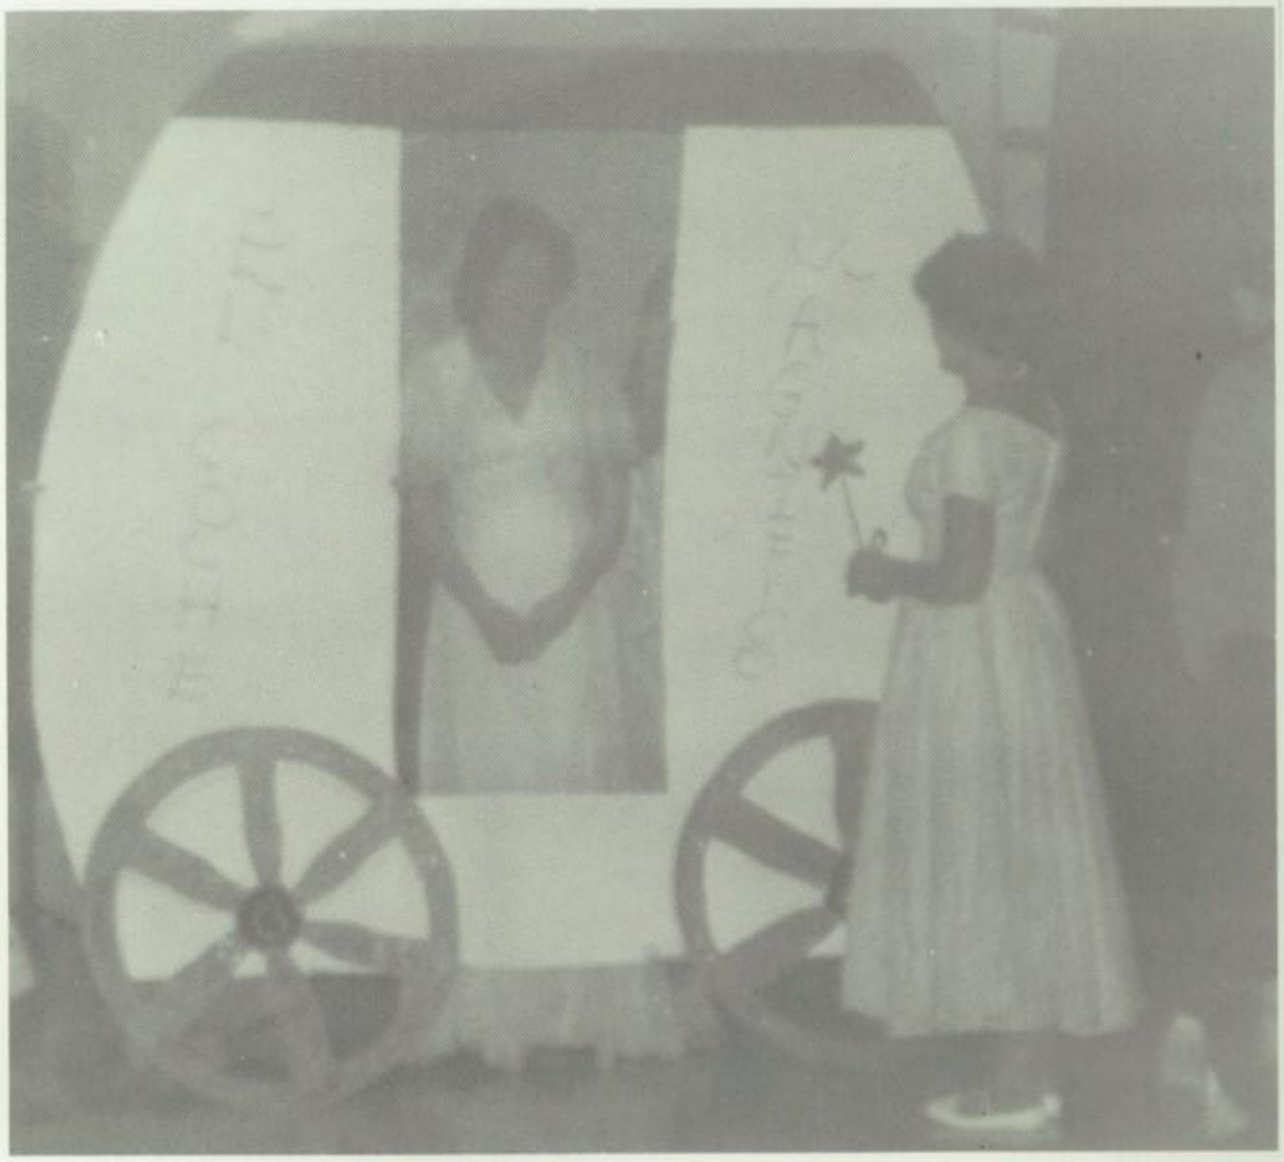
Promoting the culture for the Spanish-speaking countries is the club's purpose.



FRENCH CLUB

Christmas caroling, meals at River Ridge Run and Wedgewood, and Foreign Language Week are a few of the French Club's activities. The French Club consists of students who are in the French classes. Each year the Mardi Gras is celebrated in each class.

The purpose of the French Club is to promote interests in the culture and language of the French people.

The Future Teachers of America was organized to help students be aware of the opportunities in education as well as help those who may become teachers. FTA members visit local elementary schools on a regular basis to help teachers and serve as aides. Throughout the year the club gives the teachers a tea or a party and presents the teachers with a small gift at Christmas.

FBLA

Future Business Leaders of America is an organization designed to inform its members about jobs that are available in the business world. The club had several guest speakers during the year. They also arranged a meal for a needy family at Thanksgiving. They give a scholarship each year to a student who plans to further his education in the business occupation.

Janice,
I have enjoyed teaching you this year. My only regret is that you had to be in 3rd period. I feel I have often punished my really good students unjustly. Please forgive me and know I consider you an excellent student. You are intelligent, dependable, and friendly. You should do well in anything you work at. Please remain sweet and cute. Good luck next year, and have a nice summer.

Dear ~~Janet~~ oops Janice,

I remember how I used to get your name mixed-up all the time. Well, now I remember and I'll never forget. A name like that belongs to a girl like you. You're very, very pretty and sweet too. Thanks for all the good times this year. Study hall wouldn't ~~have been the same~~ without you. And I'll never forget all our wild surprise parties. And our mall expeditions. You're a pretty cool person even when you're drugged up but I still don't understand why you dumped that gallon of cold duck down my shirt in front of all those great looking hunks from Bandy's. I hope you get another car it's too bad about your other one. And don't worry about Chris. If he doesn't notice as sweet, innocent, charming, loveable, lonely girl like you then who needs him. Yes, I know you do. Well, good luck. (You'll need it) just kidding.

Luv ya,
Jewls

Maybe C.S. goes swimming in summer. If so we'll have to go and Well, it's the end of another school year, a year that has been rather hectic for many members of the CORONA staff. No one realizes the hard work that goes into producing a yearbook, until one experiences it. I hope that all the hard work and dedication will be appreciated in this edition of the CORONA.

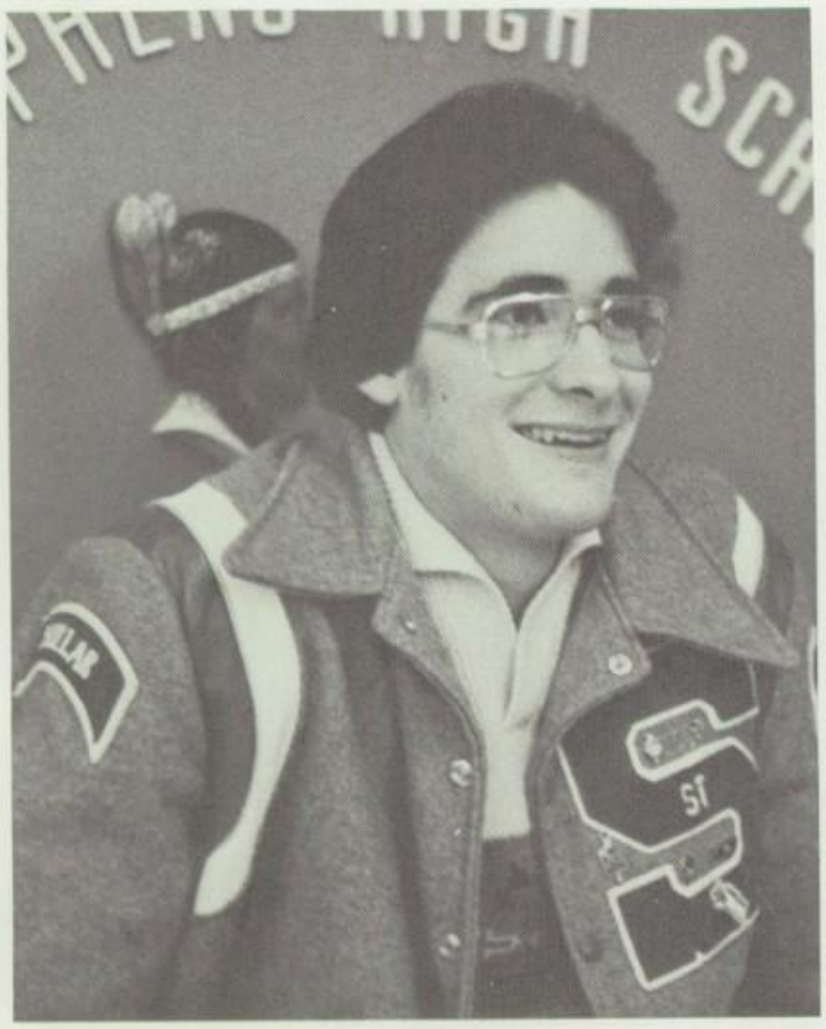
I would like to extend my appreciation to the following people: Ms. Carol Haines, our business advisor; Mr. Leon Lewis, our Delmar representative; and all those who helped with the photography, especially Mr. James D. Yount.

I would like to give my special thanks to Miss Laura Echerd, our editoral advisor, for her constant help and guidance and to the 1978-1979 CORONA staff.



Terry Hollar, Business Editor

The 1978-79 school year has been one that most of us will remember as a wonderful year. It has been a year with plenty of excitement, a year filled with a lot of agony, and a year that the CORONA Business Staff hopes everyone will cherish forever. We have worked hard and tried our best to produce a great and inexpensive annual for the students and faculty. Through the help and support of many businesses throughout the Hickory area, we have accomplished our goal. I personally would like to thank these businesses as well as my advisors, Ms. Carol Haines and Miss Laura Echerd, for all of their help and encouragement they have given me. Without them my work would have been much more difficult. I would also like to thank my great staff and also many members of the editorial staff who helped me immensely. Again, its been a great year, and I wish next year's staff all of the luck in the world.

Janice Lutz

Janice, You are very sweet and very pretty. I wish all the luck in the world for you. Don't ever change. Love ya, Lora

Janice,

I should have written under Chris' but there wasn't any room. Maybe I can fix ya'll up sometime soon. I'm going to hate my own cousin taking my woman away from me. Seriously I think you're a sweet and beautiful young lady. With your looks you should go places in life. I really wish I could have dated you but for some reason I guess I'm just not your type. Good luck in your years at SSHS and always remember that I have time to date you whenever you're ready.

Love Always,

Todd Sexton #34

Janice, I can't believe this year is already over but we'll surely be glad to get out of M.C.'s Science class! Thanks for being so nice and sweet and I hope to see you this summer and on the road (drivers!) Look on page 41 and you'll see the rest of my life (apple of my eye)

Good luck always

Love, Vicki Rhuser

Janice, its been a great year. its too bad we didn't get any classes together, hopefully next year. Then we can flirt with all the guys - you're a real sweet + pretty girl. And will go far in life! See ya later.

Janice,
I'm glad we've gotten to be pretty good friends this year. Don't be a stranger around the neighborhood this summer. You're a very sweet & considerable person. I'm glad we got to meet this year. We've had a good time this year. Especially with the guys you've liked.
(ha, ha) Stay sweet. Stay out of trouble. Maybe next year you'll have better luck with you-know who next year. One good think you won't be is a freshman. (just kidding)

Bambi Hood

Janice,
You are a very special person & I always think of you as a good friend. I've enjoyed having P.E. with you. Stay the way you are.
Love ya

Janice,
I'm glad I got to know you this year. You're such a sweet person. It's too bad your a freshman this year. I hope you enjoy the future but hope you enjoy the future
Lots of Luck in the future
P.S. We really had a good time on the bus.
Love
Connie

Janice,
I'm glad I got to know ya better this year. you are a very nice and pretty person. I enjoyed all the good times with you in Mr. Curtis' class. Be good this summer.
AFA,

Janice,
I'm glad we've known each other a pretty long time. (Ever since a considered good to be exact) We've always considered you as a good friend and always will. O.K? Have a good time this summer but be careful! Don't let it get too playful!

Love forever!
